Attention

The meeting of the Nevada Agricultural Mining and Mechanical Society will be held at the Court House on Friday next, at 2 o'clock p. m. It is hardly necessary for us to point out to our citizens, the necessity of voting their stock intelligently and after carefully considering the names presented before them. We want the best men of the society to manage its affairs. We want the liberal minded, and energetic management which we had last year. We want some good rancher or two on the Board to represent the farming interests, and above all we want to make the elected officers understand that we take an active and abiding interest in this Society. Carson is still talking a race track, but apparently with little effect. We have in a few years built up an institution which astonished everyone by its success last year. Let us keep up our efforts, and still further increase our success. We want liberal purses, generous encouragement for visitors, and ample premiums for every order of merit; also a wise and economical administration of financial affairs, and it is with our own people to see that such men are elected. Do not fail, then, to indicate your preference at the meeting on Friday.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—A Times Washington special says: One of the most modest bills of the present session was introduced to-day, asking Government aid to the extent of only $50,000,000, to build a railroad from the Atlantic to the Pacific, via Indianapolis, Chicago and Omaha. It consists of sixty pages, and serves to make the generality of Pacific railroad bills appear ridiculous.

Every possible attempt will be made to break down Scott's Southern Pacific road, and we may therefore anticipate that the railroad schemes and contests, will consume much of the time of Congress during its present session.

Senator Jones.

The Carson Appeal is evidently squaring its deck for action and will fight mit Jones. Hear what a correspondent of that journal says:

"Your remarks in the Appeal of January 4th in relation to the re-election of John P. Jones as Senator from your State, strike a responsive chord in the bosom of every true Republican in this latitude. Senator Jones by his bearing and ability has inspired a feeling of profound respect, not only among his colleagues in the Senate, but among all classes of the community with which he has come in contact.

Some persons imagined, when he proved himself in his first speech on the gold and silver question to be more than a match for the late Senator Morton as an impromptu debater, that he had exhausted himself; but his subsequent speech on 'Resumption and the Double Standard' at once dissipated all such notions, and his report as Chairman of the Monetary Commission, has left nothing to be added to the information it contains. Reports are made almost daily, and forgotten as soon as made; but Jones' report is sought after by everybody in the land who takes an interest in the financial questions. As a literary production alone it commands respect; and in reading it one is carried back to the days when the hurry-scurry style of writing had not obtained a footing. One of the ablest of Western men has said that he was utterly astonished to find a report evincing so much research, as interesting as a novel.

Two vagrants were sent to jail yesterday to tarry for a few days at the expense of the county. John Doe Badger, who, on Saturday night stole a fish-reel valued at $14 from Fisher, was sent up for fourteen days.

The increased attendance at the Methodist Sunday School necessitates additional room. The infant class will be provided with new quarters in a few Sabbaths.

Frank Burke, C. P. detective, has been in town several days. We hear of nothing wrong, however detectives have no tongues.

Mrs. C. T. Bender has returned from Sacramento. Next Friday morning she goes on a two months' visit to her relatives and friends in the East.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Congressional Lyceum.

The House met last evening, pursuant to adjournment, but owing to the inclemency of the weather but few members were present.

Mr. Mann introduced a bill for prohibiting polygamy in the Territory of Utah, in the State of Nevada, and the District of Columbia. The bill provides as a penalty that persons offending against its provisions of the act, shall be forever deprived of American citizenship, that their property shall be confiscated, that they shall be branded in the forehead with a photograph of Henry Ward Beecher or Brigham Young, as the Court may decide, and be transported beyond the high seas for life.

The final section of the bill exempts Carson City from the operation of the law during the biennial session of the Legislature.

On introducing the bill, Mr. Mann said that it was intended to work important changes in the moral condition and social and political relations of the people of Utah Territory, and called on the members of the House for their advise and counsel in forming its provisions. The resolution in regard to the President's Civil Service policy was postponed until the next meeting of the Lyceum.

House adjourned until Friday, January 28th.

TO-NIGHT, BOYS.—The members of fire company No. 2 meet this evening at their hall for the purpose of electing officers and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. After the regular exercises a collation will constitute a marked feature of the evening's exercises. Then will come the flow of reason and the feast of soul. Dr. Hogan will, in his felicitous manner, depict the scenes of a fireman's life in the early days of New York. We are not informed whether the gentleman will go back to the days of good Dutch rule and toast old Peter Minuet, or confine his delineations to the days since the Duke of York came into possession of the rich and populous "isle of drunkenness." It is not given to the public ear as a fact, but we anticipate that other gentlemen will handsomely respond to the merry toast. It were meet, however, that songs of the days agone should add to the jocundity of the hour, and we are informed that these will not be wanting. The boys will have a mellow time; the scenes of the fires which united the bonds of friendship shall find proper expression. A company of our best citizens will make merry after the routine of business. They are jolly good fellows and we wish them a royal good time.

OLD FOLKS' CONCERT.—This evening a party of ladies and gentlemen, in behalf of the financial interests of the Methodist Church, give the first of two concerts at Smith's Academy of Music. The concerts to be given this evening and to-morrow evening will be bona fide old folks' concerts, with the participants mainly of the desirable age. The exercises will consist of singing, with probably a few tableaux sandwiched in. A supper will also be provided. We remember the jolly, real social character of these old folks' concerts last year, and appreciate the pleasure one has in attending them. We trust that our citizens will liberally patronize these two entertainments. While they assist an excellent cause they at the same time accommodate their wish for enjoyment at a trivial expense.

W. H. Treadaway, who recently purchased a number of blooded chickens, had 15 of them stolen Sunday night. The sacrilegious thief to steal blooded chickens on Sunday night. This is the second or third time that Treadaway has thus been served. Is it because his chickens are blooded, or do the thieves live in that vicinity? The only way for Treadaway to get even is to borrow a dozen or two chickens of his neighbors and set up some night with a shot-gun and watch them. Next morning let these chickens be gone. Tell his neighbors they have been stolen and stick to his story.

Order your domino suit at Prescott's or you will have your own to make. Tomorrow is the last day of grace.

John Laughlin, the would-be depot incendiary, was examined this afternoon in the Justice Court. The prospects are very favorable for John to become a criminal recluse.

A modicum of rain fell late yesterday afternoon and up to 9 o'clock in the evening. Then came the gentle snow, covering the ground some two inches. To-day, however, the sky is clear and the sun shines bright and warm. Our storm is yet to come.

PYRAMID.—J. E. Jones, Superintendent of the Jones & Kinkead went to Pyramid to-day. His last visit was on Sunday when the prospect at a depth of 343 feet still remained promising and the point where water was expected was passed. Mr. Jones went out to supply a blower to the mine for the purpose of ventilation, the air having become quite bad on the lower levels. The seven foot ore body lately encountered seems to be increasing in richness with the depth. Don't lose any of your faith in the Jones & Kinkead.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. S. Monroe Hubbard, on account of the storm on Tuesday evening which kept away so many people from church, has kindly, through the persuasion of friends, consented to remain over next Sabbath and preach from the themes already announced. On Friday evening he will preach at the Baptist Church on "Man's Richest Bonanza." On Sunday, a. m., "The Successful Church." Sunday night, "The Arbiter of Human Destiny."

SELLING OUT.—Mr. J. Lipson proposes to give his entire attention to the manufacture of gloves, and therefore proposes to sell his present stock of gents' furnishing goods at cost price. There will be no replenishing of his stock or getting off his hands an ill-assorted stock of goods. He will sell out and then make gloves a specialty. So if you want furnishing goods cheap call on Lipson, on Virginia street.

Seven Hundred Men Eagerly Apply For It—Only a Few Get It.

[S. F. Mall, 22d.]

Charles Crooker's offer of work on the Potrero was cheerfully accepted yesterday morning by seven hundred laborers, eager to work at the low wages offered. As early as five o'clock the scene of the intended improvements was visited by crowds of workmen ready to wield the pick and shovel. The directors of the works were surprised. They had evidently not expected that their offer would be so generally accepted, as there were upwards of three hundred and thirty men on the ground. That number were engaged and detailed as follows: 18 as foremen; 50 as drilling holes for blasting; 50 to drive carts, and the remainder to use pick and shovel and assist in loading eight platform cars. It is the intention of the railroad company to grade through from Illinois to Kentucky street. To perform this work will necessitate the removal of a body of rock and clay one block in width, three hundred feet in length, and from twenty to fifty feet high. The soil so removed will be used in filling in the swamp in the vicinity. The men who have signified their anxiety to assist in the work are, for the most part, apparently honest fellows who look forward to hard work as a means of obtaining a livelihood. There are a few exceptions. Young men, who, being without friends and congenial employment, have, by the force of poverty, been driven into competition with persons better fitted by nature and training, for the work. Such men are always at hand. Their presence does not indisputably prove that the times are exceptionally hard. It was the crowd of willing laborers who, in other days would have scoffed at the petty offer of $1 a day toiling earnestly to earn that pittance, that exemplified the present necessity of the poor. The men are to be paid by the day, and yesterday after the men had been assigned to their respective duties, the paymaster, with two assistants, took the names of all at work and issued to such a check for a half day's pay. The same arrangement was observed in the afternoon. At night the checks were cashed by a paymaster who came on the ground with the requisite coin. Boys were paid half rates. In a few days the men will be divided into gangs and a different method of payment adopted.

PROPOSED ABOLITION OF OUR DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.—New York, January 22d.—A Tribune Washington special says: The Sub-Committee on Appropriations, charged with the preparation of the Consular and Diplomatic bill, had a long interview with the Secretary of State to-day. The most important feature of this conversation was the announcement made by Representative Hewitt of an intention to perfect a measure looking to the entire abolition of the Diplomatic Service and the transfer of the ordinary subjects of diplomatic correspondence and intercourse to the Consular Service, leaving special subjects of negotiation, such as treaties, etc., to special Commissioners. The history of our diplomatic intercourse, he said, presents numerous instances where this course has been pursued, even when we have had Ministers resident at the Courts of the Powers interested in the negotiation. Hewitt told the Secretary also that he favored the establishment of a Consular Bureau in the Department of State, to have charge of Consular affairs. When the Consular and Diplomatic bill is under consideration he proposes to make a speech, setting forth these ideas.
